If you could only eat one type of food for the rest of your life, what would it be and why?

Discussion Questions 💬

▼ How can we identify and help address the loneliness that is prevalent among young people today?

- Pastor Rob mentioned that loneliness is a deep-rooted characteristic among young people today, with many feeling emotionally isolated even though they may not be physically alone.
- Have you experienced loneliness in your life? If so, what actions or approaches helped you to overcome it?

▼ How can we encourage young people to base their self-worth on internal factors, such as their identity in Christ, instead of external factors?

- Young people often struggle with self-worth, basing their value on external factors like appearance, achievements, and acceptance. Pastor Rob emphasized the harmful effects of comparison, especially through social media.

- What practices can you implement in your own life to build a healthier sense of self-worth, focused on your identity in Christ?
- ▼ What can we do as individuals and as a community to help establish a strong biblical foundation in the lives of young people?
- Many young people grow up in a post-Christian culture without a biblical background. Pastor Rob stressed the importance of parents, the church, and Christian schools in instilling biblical values.
 - How can you personally contribute to teaching and nurturing the biblical foundation of the young people in your life?
- ▼ How can the church and its members actively participate in engaging and reaching out to young people effectively?
- Pastor Rob shared a strategy involving parents, the church, and Christian schools, highlighting the crucial role of children and youth ministries and the need for intentional investment in young people's lives.
 - What skills, resources, or opportunities do you have that could be used to help engage and support young people in your church community?
- ▼ Given the struggles that young people face today, how can we remain hopeful and prayerful, trusting God to bring about a great awakening in this generation?
- Despite the challenges facing the younger generation, Pastor Rob reminded us of the opportunity for a great awakening and the potential for young people to change the world with their faith.
 - What scriptures or personal experiences have encouraged you to maintain hope and trust in God's plan for the younger generation?

Prayer 🙏

- Ask for prayer requests from the group.
- Pray that God helps us recognize the importance of loving and valuing the younger generation.
- Ask God to provide us with wisdom and courage to address the moral challenges highlighted in the sermon.
- Pray that our actions will reflect Jesus' teachings and that we remove obstacles preventing the younger generation from coming to Him.
